Mr. AUSTIN. I announce that the Senator from Oregon [Mr. McNARY] is absent because of illness.

The Senator from New Hampshire [Mr. BRIDGES], the Senator from Massachusetts [Mr. LODGE], the Senator from Minnesota [Mr. SHIPSTEAD], and the Senator from New Hampshire [Mr. TOBEY] are necessarily absent.

The VICE PRESIDENT. Eighty-one Senators having answered to their names, a quorum is present.

NOTIFICATION TO THE PRESIDENT

Mr. BARKLEY submitted the following resolution (S. Res. 1), which was read, considered by unanimous consent, and agreed to:

Resolved, That a committee consisting of two Senators be appointed to join such committee as may be appointed by the House of Representatives to wait upon the President of the United States and inform him that a quorum of each House is assembled and that the Congress is ready to receive any communication he may be pleased to make.

The VICE PRESIDENT appointed Mr. BARKLEY and Mr. AUSTIN the committee on the part of the Senate.

NOTIFICATION TO THE HOUSE

Mr. AUSTIN submitted the following resolution (S. Res. 2), which was read, considered by unanimous consent, and agreed to:

Resolved, That the Secretary inform the House of Representatives that a quorum of the Senate is assembled and that the Senate is ready to proceed to business.

HOUR OF DAILY MEETING

Mr. HILL submitted the following resolution (S. Res. 3), which was read, considered by unanimous consent, and agreed to:

Resolved, That the hour of daily meeting of the Senate be 12 o'clock meridian unless otherwise ordered.

COUNTING OF THE ELECTORAL VOTES

Mr. GEORGE submitted a concurrent resolution (S. Con. Res. 1), which was considered by unanimous consent and agreed to, as follows:

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That the two Houses of Congress shall meet in the Hall of the House of Representatives on Monday, the 6th day of January, 1941, at 1 o'clock p. m., pursuant to the requirements of the Constitution and laws relating to the election of President and Vice President of the United States, and the President of the Senate shall be their Presiding Officer; that two tellers shall be previously appointed by the President of the Senate on the part of the Senate and two by the Speaker on the part of the House of Representatives, to whom shall be handed, as they are opened by the President of the Senate, all the certificates and papers purporting to be certificates of the electoral votes, which certificates and papers shall be opened, presented, and acted upon in the alphabetical order of the States, beginning with the letter A; and said tellers, having then read the same in the presence and hearing of the two Houses, shall make a list of the votes as they shall appear from the said certificates; and the votes having been ascertained and counted in the manner and according to the rules by law provided, the result of the same shall be delivered to the President of the Senate, who shall thereupon announce the state of the vote, which announcement shall be deemed a sufficient declaration of the persons, if any, elected President and Vice President of the United States, and, together with a list of the votes, be entered on the Journals of the two Houses.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The Chair will not appoint the tellers on the part of the Senate until the House shall have acted on the concurrent resolution. The Chair will appoint the tellers later.

NOTIFICATION TO THE PRESIDENT

Mr. BARKLEY and Mr. AUSTIN advanced in the center aisle, and Mr. BARKLEY said: "Mr. President, the committee appointed on the part of the Senate to act in conjunction with a similar committee on the part of the House to notify the President that the Congress is now in session and ready for business has discharged its duty, and the President has indicated that he will address a joint session of the Congress at approximately 2 o'clock p. m. on Monday next."

ADJOURNMENT TO MONDAY

Mr. BARKLEY. Mr. President, if there is nothing further—

Mr. LEE. Mr. President, will the Senator yield?

Mr. BARKLEY. I yield.

Mr. LEE. I wish to introduce a bill.

Mr. BARKLEY. Mr. President, in that connection I will say to the Senator from Oklahoma that it has been customary to await the delivery of the President's message before bills are introduced. That statement has been made to a number of Senators, and I think no prejudice will come about by observing that rule.

If there is nothing further, I move that the Senate adjourn until 12 o'clock noon on Monday next.

The motion was agreed to; and (at 12 o'clock and 33 minutes p. m.) the Senate adjourned until Monday, January 6, 1941, at 12 o'clock meridian.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

FRIDAY, JANUARY 3, 1941

This being the day fixed by the Constitution for the annual meeting of the Congress of the United States, the Members-elect of the House of Representatives of the Seventy-seventh Congress met in their Hall, and at 12 o'clock noon were called to order by Hon. South Trimble, Clerk of the last House.

Rev. James Shera Montgomery, D. D., Chaplain of the last House, offered the following

PRAYER

O Lord, God of heaven and earth, in our silent hurry, turn Thy leaning face as we wait at the altar of prayer and dedication. We tarry in the dawn of this new year, and at the threshold of this day, as this sad, sick world is quivering with uncertainty, swift with tragic designs, and veiled with dark mystery. Oh, flush our consciousness with unity, fortitude, and with the deepest sense of our obligations as we move forward to meet the challenge of the hour. In its blinding dust, let us see the uprising of democracy being born again for all who cherish the rights of man. With a passionate love and devotion for our homeland, Almighty God, we would here resolve to be done with cynicism and pledge all that we have to establish those fundamental verities and with spiritual determination hold our Republic as the ultimate hope of man and the sanctuary of human liberty. Out of the night into the dawn, out of pain and discord, grant us the peace of God and the vision splendid, looking toward the uprising of a brighter day, chanting the new song of a better world. Heavenly Father, the door of the future is now ajar; let us see through the transfigured clouds the trace of the noon-day sun. Come, Spirit of God, and give us courage and wisdom to meet all error and all wrong; be Thou the rock of our salvation and our high tower; come and be the strength and the guide of our President; preserve his strength and keep him in good health. Graciously abide with our beloved Speaker, the leaders, the officers, and employees of the Congress. In our Saviour's name. Amen.

The CLERK. The Clerk of the House of Representatives of the Seventy-sixth Congress will call the names of those present whose credentials show that they have been regularly elected as Representatives in accordance with the laws of their respective States, or of the United States. As the roll is called, following the alphabetical order of the States, the Representatives-elect will please answer to their names, to determine whether a quorum is present.

The Clerk called the roll by States, and the following Members-elect answered to their names:

The CLERK. The roll call discloses the presence of 410 members. A quorum is present.

Credentials, regular in order, have been filed showing the election of ANTHONY J. DIMOND, as Delegate from the Territory of Alaska, and of SAMUEL W. KING, as Delegate from the Territory of Hawaii.

A Resident Commissioner to the United States from Puerto Rico is elected quadrennially. The Clerk has not received certificate of election showing the election of such Commissioner for the term of 4 years beginning January 3, 1941.

The Clerk is happy to state that since the regular election of Representatives to the Seventy-seventh Congress no change has occurred in the roll of Representatives-elect, the Representatives-elect having enjoyed unusually good health. He has, therefore, not been required to change the roll on account of the demise of any Member, which is something unusual.

ELECTION OF SPEAKER

The CLERK. The next business in order is the election of a Speaker, and nominations will now be received.

Mr. DUNCAN. Mr. Clerk, as chairman of the Democratic caucus, I am directed, by the unanimous vote of that caucus, to present for election to the office of the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Seventy-seventh Congress the name of Hon. SAM RAYBURN, a Representative-elect from the State of Texas.

Mr. WOODRUFF of Michigan, Mr. Clerk, under direction and authority of the Republican Conference, representing a minority in this House, I nominate for Speaker of the House of Representatives a distinguished, able gentleman, Hon. JOSEPH W. MARTIN, Jr., of Massachusetts, Representative-elect to the Seventy-seventh Congress.

The CLERK. Hon. SAM RAYBURN, a Representative-elect from the State of Texas, Hon. JOSEPH W. MARTIN, Jr., a Representative-elect from the State of Massachusetts, have been placed in nomination. Are there any further nominations? There being no further nominations, the Clerk appoints the gentlewoman from New Jersey [Mrs. NORTON], the gentleman from Texas [Mr. THOMASON], the gentlewoman from Maine [Mrs. SMITH], and the gentleman from Michigan [Mr. JONKMAN] to act as tellers. They will please come forward and take their seats at the desk. The roll will now be called and those responding will indicate by surname the nominee of their choice.

The tellers having taken their places, the House proceeded to vote for Speaker. The following is the vote in detail:

ANSWERED "PRESENT"

Martin, Mass.

The CLERK. The tellers agree on their tally. The total number of votes cast is 410, of which Hon. SAM RAYBURN has received 247 votes; Hon. JOSEPH W. MARTIN, Jr., 159 votes; Hon. MERLIN HULL, 2 votes; and Hon. BERNARD J. GEHRMANN, 1 vote.

Therefore, Hon. SAM RAYBURN, a Representative-elect from the State of Texas, having received a majority of all the votes cast, is duly elected Speaker of the House of Representatives for the Seventy-seventh Congress. [Applause.]

The gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. MARTIN], the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. McCORMACK], the gentleman from Colorado [Mr. TAYLOR], the gentleman from Michigan [Mr. WOODRUFF], and the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. DUNCAN] are appointed a committee to notify Mr. RAYBURN of his election and to escort him to the chair.

PRESENTATION OF THE SPEAKER-ELECT

The committee appointed by the Clerk escorted Mr. RAYBURN to the chair.

Mr. MARTIN of Massachusetts. A balky voice prevents a willing spirit from giving the introduction I would like to give the new Speaker. However, it is a great pleasure to present to you my good friend the able and distinguished SAM RAYBURN, who has been just honored by the House. [Applause.]

The SPEAKER (Hon. SAM RAYBURN). My colleagues of the House of Representatives, you have done me a great and signal honor for which I thank you. To those members of my party who with unanimity supported me and elected me to this high position, I tender my grateful thanks. To the minority leader, that scholar, that gentleman, that great leader of his party, I tender thanks for his gracious words in presenting me to you; and to the members of the minority who on so many occasions have given evidence of their kindly feeling and their good will toward me, I thank you.

We have in this country a two-party government. Our Government is administered through party organizations. I expected the minority to vote unanimously for their distinguished candidate.

We have a great charge committed to us as the work of the Seventy-seventh Congress and, believing in party government and in party responsibility, I call upon my party in the House of Representatives, with as much unanimity as possible, to carry out the program that will be presented by the leaders in the administration and in the House of Representatives.

This is a great year. Great, and I might say terrible, things are happening in this world. On domestic issues of a partisan character I expect the Members of the House to divide along party lines, but, having served in the House of Representatives during the great World War when the fate of the Nation was at stake—yea, I might say the fate of civilization was at stake—the center aisle did not divide the patriotism of the membership of the House of Representatives. [Applause.]

During this Congress and in this time on issues involving the national defense, on matters involving the safety and security and defense of America, I expect again to see us act with practical unanimity, regardless of party. [Applause.]

You have elevated me to a position, I must confess, that has been one of the ambitions of my lifetime. Today I will take the oath of office as a Representative from the Fourth Congressional District of the State of Texas for the fifteenth time. The House of Representatives has been my life and my love for this more than a quarter of a century. I love its traditions; I love its precedents; I love its dignity; I glory in the power of the House of Representatives. [Applause.] As your Speaker and presiding officer it shall be my highest hope and my unswerving aim to preserve, protect, and defend the rights, prerogatives, and the power of the House of Representatives. [Applause.]

We come fresh from the people each 2 years. We have a right to think that we are more nearly the voice of the average citizen than any other legislative body upon the face of the earth. Democracy today throughout the length and breadth of the earth is on the defensive. It is going to take all of the patriotism, all of the fine common sense of every inhabitant of every democracy upon the face of this earth in the months that lie ahead of us to see that democracy survives and that tyranny does not take its place. [Applause.]

From a grateful heart I again thank you, and I am ready to take the oath of office.

The gentleman from Illinois [Mr. SABATH] will administer the oath of office.

Mr. SABATH then administered the oath of office to the Speaker. [Applause, the Members rising.]

SWEARING IN OF THE MEMBERS

The SPEAKER. Some years ago the old custom of having each delegation come to the well and take the oath of office was subrogated, and there was substituted instead the precedent that all Members should rise in their places and take the oath of office at the same time. The Chair thinks the latter precedent is much more convenient and much more practical. The Chair therefore asks each Member and each Delegate elected to the Seventy-seventh Congress to rise in his place that the Speaker may administer to them the oath of office.

The Members- and Delegates-elect rose and the Speaker administered to them the oath of office.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

The SPEAKER. The Speaker recognizes the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. DUNCAN] to offer a resolution.

Mr. DUNCAN. Mr. Speaker, I offer the following resolution.

The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 1

Resolved, That South Trimble, of the State of Kentucky, be, and he is hereby, chosen the Clerk of the House of Representatives;

That Kenneth Romney, of the State of Montana, be, and he is hereby, chosen Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives;

That Joseph J. Sinnott, of the State of Virginia, be, and he is hereby, chosen Doorkeeper of the House of Representatives;

That Finis E. Scott, of the State of Tennessee, be, and he is hereby, chosen Postmaster of the House of Representatives; and

That Rev James Shera Montgomery, D. D., of the District of Columbia, be, and he is hereby, chosen Chaplain of the House of Representatives.

Mr. WOODRUFF of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, I ask that the resolution be divided; that a separate vote be taken on the election of Chaplain and that this would be taken first. I shall then offer a substitute for the balance of the pending resolution.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Michigan is entitled to a division on the election of the Reverend James Shera Montgomery as Chaplain of the House of Representatives.

The resolution was divided; the question was taken; and the Reverend James Shera Montgomery, D. D., was elected Chaplain of the House of Representatives for the Seventy-seventh Congress.

Mr. WOODRUFF of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, I offer a substitute resolution for the resolution offered by the gentleman from Missouri, which I send to the Clerk's desk.

The Clerk read the substitute resolution as follows:

Substitute resolution offered by Mr. WOODRUFF of Michigan:

"Resolved, That William Tyler Page, of the State of Maryland, be, and he is hereby, chosen Clerk of the House of Representatives;

"That W. F. Russell, of the State of Pennsylvania, be, and he is hereby, chosen Sergeant-at-Arms of the House of Representatives;

"That John Andrews, of the State of Massachusetts, be, and he is hereby, chosen Doorkeeper of the House of Representatives; and

"That Frank W. Collier, of the State of Wisconsin, be, and he is hereby, elected Postmaster of the House of Representatives."

The SPEAKER. The question is on the substitute resolution.

The substitute resolution was rejected. The SPEAKER. The question recurs on the original resolution.

The resolution was agreed to.

Mr. South Trimble, Mr. Kenneth Romney, Mr. Joseph J. Sinnott, Mr. Finis E. Scott, and the Reverend James Shera Montgomery, D. D., appeared at the bar of the House, and the oath of office was administered to them by the Speaker.

The resolution was agreed to.

The Chair appoints as members of the committee on the part of the House to join with the committee on the part of the Senate to notify the President of the United States that a quorum of each House has been assembled and that the Congress is ready to receive any communication he may be pleased to make, the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. McCORMACK], the gentleman from North Carolina [Mr. DOUGHTON], and the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. MARTIN].

NOTIFICATION OF ELECTION OF SPEAKER AND CLERK

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Colorado [Mr. TAYLOR].

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. Speaker, I offer a resolution which I send to the Clerk's desk.

The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 4

Resolved, That the Clerk be instructed to inform the President of the United States that the House of Representatives has elected SAM RAYBURN, a Representative from the State of Texas, Speaker, and South Trimble, a citizen of the State of Kentucky, Clerk of the House of Representatives, of the Seventy-seventh Congress.

The resolution was agreed to.

RULES OF THE HOUSE

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Illinois [Mr. SABATH] is recognized.

Mr. SABATH. Mr. Speaker, I offer the following resolution.

The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 5

Resolved, That the rules of the Seventy-sixth Congress be, and they are hereby, adopted as the rules of the Seventy-seventh Congress.

The resolution was agreed to.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

A message from the Senate, by Mr. Frazier, its legislative clerk, announced that the Senate had adopted the following resolutions:

Senate Resolution 1

Resolved, That a committee consisting of two Senators be appointed to join such committee as may be appointed by the House of Representatives to wait upon the President of the United States and inform him that a quorum of each House is assembled and that the Congress is ready to receive any communication he may be pleased to make.

Senate Resolution 2

Resolved, That the Secretary inform the House of Representatives that a quorum of the Senate is assembled and that the Senate is ready to proceed to business.

The message also announced that the Senate had passed a concurrent resolution of the following title, in which the concurrence of the House is requested:

S. Con. Res. 1. Concurrent resolution providing for a joint session of the two Houses of Congress on Monday, January 6, 1941, pursuant to the requirements of the Constitution and laws relating to the election of President and Vice President of the United States.

SENATE

MONDAY, JANUARY 6, 1941

The Chaplain, Rev. Z. Barney T. Phillips, D. D., offered the following prayer:

O Thou who art ever tender and merciful to Thy children, who in Thy holy word hast mirrored Thyself in a Father's pity, and who through Thy holy prophet hast said, "My kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, for I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands": Grant that Thy fatherly interest, Thy covenant regard, may be our comfort through the coming fateful days. May they speed the feet of service, strengthen the arm of endeavor, brighten the future, and lead us all to great achievements in the cause to which we have dedicated ourselves anew—the reclamation of the brotherhood of man inspired by Thy loving fatherhood.

Close Thou our eyes to that we should not see, and make us deaf to that we should not hear. Let truth restrain our tongues from uttering vain words, our lips from speaking guile, and, with eyes fixed on Thee, let each one say:

"Cleanse, Lord, and purify my heart
And make it clean in every part;
And when 'tis pure, Lord, keep it so,
For that is more than I can do."

So we commit ourselves unto Thy guardianship, in the name of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.
